

Political Science / International Relations (PSI)

Division of Social Sciences

- Major: 36 credit hours (At least 18 taken at McKendree University)
- Minor: 21 credit hours (At least 12 taken at McKendree University)
- All courses for the major and minor must be completed with a grade of C- or better

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS:

- Capstone: Senior Seminar (W) (PSI 498)

Description of Major: McKendree offers a major in both political science and international relations. These majors provide students with the knowledge, skills, and values necessary to be effective citizens in a globalizing world. Students learn the enduring ideas of political philosophy, multiple theoretical approaches within the discipline, and social science research skills. Students then apply the knowledge and skills of the discipline to both explore the many challenges of our contemporary world and to develop their values. Both majors culminate with a capstone experience which provides students with the opportunity to do extensive research and present their findings in a seminar setting.

Student Learning Outcomes

In both majors, students will:

- Demonstrate knowledge of the major concepts of the discipline, particularly in the fields of American politics and international relations.
- Demonstrate the writing skills necessary to effectively participate in academic, civic, and political environments.
- Demonstrate the oral presentation skills necessary to effectively participate in academic, civic, and political environments.
- Demonstrate the critical thinking and research skills necessary to effectively participate in academic, civic, and political environments.

Preparation: Degrees in political science and international relations are a strong foundation for careers in a number of areas, including local, state or national government, law, non-governmental organizations, labor and industrial relations, city management and urban planning, political consulting and campaign management, interest groups and social interest lobbying, and journalism.
